

John Harber, P. Eng

- John has over 35 years in the nuclear industry and has worked on nuclear instrumentation and control designs for both new build CANDU and Engineering Services work for operating CANDU stations. He is presently leading design and modification projects for OPG, CNL, Bruce and CANDU 6 projects along with preparing training and delivering courses on CANDU systems and components.
- He has participated in the development of the CSA Standard N290.8 for Technical Specifications of Nuclear Components and participated in IAEA missions in Korea, China and Austria along with the development of IAEA TECDOCs on instrumentation.