

John P.S. Froats, P. Eng.

- John Froats has over 47 years of nuclear industry experience including many plant roles including as a Licenced Shift Manager and the executive role of Chief Nuclear Engineer and VP Engineering and Modifications. He led the CANDU Owners Group as President and CEO and the CSA Nuclear Standards Program as Chair.
- He has taught approximately 2,000 students on subjects including safety culture, nuclear design methods, nuclear safety design and power plant operation.
- John is currently an Associate Professor and Nuclear Engineer in Residence at Ontario Tech University. He remains fully active in the nuclear sector and in educational work in support of the sector.